

A television

I am on a small table in the living room. The family sits on chairs or on their sofa and watches me. They can watch sports like football or basketball or watch their favourite animals like monkeys on me.

What am I? I am a television.